

THE REAL COST OF INEFFICIENT PAPER PROCESSES

WHAT'S THE REAL COST OF PAPER PROCESSES?

Just like a coffee habit, inefficient paper processes cost businesses more than it seems. Here's how these hidden costs pile up for companies staying 'stuck in paper.'

Take a look at what paper is costing you - in both time and money.

COST PER INVOICE

Switching to digital saves businesses nearly 7x per invoice, trimming down unnecessary expenses.

PAPER $22.75

DIGITAL $3.34

PROCESSING TIME PER INVOICE

Digital workflows slash processing time by 62%, giving your team hours back.

AUTOMATED PATH

Competitors who embrace automation free up time for strategic tasks like vendor research, getting better pricing, and avoiding late fees.

Automation brings real-time visibility, letting you monitor finances and catch problems before they cost you.

Employees can focus on meaningful work instead of paperwork, resulting in better profit margins and increased productivity.

PAPER PATH

RECONSIDERING THE PAPER HABIT

It's time to rethink the paper habit. By switching to automation, you're not just saving paper—you're saving money, time, and resources. Find out how DocuPhase can simplify your business. Download our solutions overview.
